PART 1 – MEMBERS, PUBLIC AND PRESS

John Fern of the Council's Highways Service has confirmed that the footway measures at 3.6 metres, which would leave 2.6 metres clear passage in excess of the Council's minimum requirement of 2 metres.

John Fern has confirmed that the Highways Service has no objections to this application and the recommendation is therefore to grant the application.

LEGAL COMMENTS

1. Section 25(4) of the London Local Authorities Act 1990 (as amended) specifies that a street trading licence may not be granted:
  - a. To a person under the age of 17 years.
  - b. To a company incorporated under the Companies Acts, an unincorporated association or a partnership except where such an application is made to carry on ice cream trading.
  - c. In respect of an application for a street trading licence which, if granted, would authorise trading in a street which is not a licence street. An exception to this prohibition is where the application is for the grant of a temporary permit and the proposed trader has the permission of the owner of the land to carry out trading activities. In such a situation, the applicant is required to provide sufficient evidence of such permission to the Licensing Sub-Committee.
  - d. Where the goods that the trader proposes to trade in are prohibited or embargoed by a resolution passed in compliance with Section 24(1)(b) of the Act.
2. In accordance with Section 25(4)(b), a licence may not be granted unless the Sub-Committee are satisfied that there is enough space in the street for the applicant to engage in the trading activity without causing undue interference or inconvenience to persons or vehicular traffic using the street.
3. As at 26 February 2010, all "Highway" means a route or area which all persons can use to pass and repass along as often and whenever they wish without let or hindrance and without charge; this includes carriageway, footway and any part of that area where the public have access and which may be in public or private ownership within the London Borough of Hillingdon designated for the purposes of street trading under the Act.
