26.	MEMBERS' QUESTIONS (Agenda Item 7) 7.1 QUESTION SUBMITTED BY COUNCILLOR ALLEN TO THE CABINET MEMBER FOR EDUCATION AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES – COUNCILLOR SIMMONDS “Due to the shortage of available social housing, there are many families (our residents) with children being placed in B&amp;B accommodation in Hillingdon and other parts of the Country. It is often the case that these children have to travel greater distances to attend their school and this is having a detrimental effect on their education and well-being. Could the Cabinet Member responsible for Education and Children’s Services please inform the Council what support is being offered to these children in this stressful situation?” The Cabinet Member for Education &amp; Children’s Services noted that the shortage of social housing was the legacy of the previous Labour Government and the slump in building that had taken place during their term in office. Labour had left the country without adequate social housing and in debt and the current Coalition Administration was trying to resolve the problems caused by this past under investment. He advised that vulnerable children were supported by the Council through regular visits by officers from Outreach Services. At these visits officers assessed the often complex needs of children and families and provided whatever support that was required. By way of supplementary question, Councillor Allen asked what specific support was being offered to families who were forced to live within one or two rooms and had children undertaking their GCSEs? The Cabinet Member for Education and Children’s Services noted that this problem was one faced by many families across the Borough and that it was not specific to those in social housing. 7.2 QUESTION SUBMITTED BY COUNCILLOR BLISS TO THE CABINET MEMBER FOR SOCIAL SERVICES, HEALTH &amp; HOUSING – COUNCILLOR CORTHORNE “With all of us being aware of the acute shortage of social housing in Hillingdon, can the Cabinet Member for Social Services, Health and Housing please inform the

Council how many empty properties it has under its ownership and the reason for the delay of offering these to those in greatest need?"

The Cabinet Member for Social Services, Health and Housing advised that this was a residual problem that dated back to Hillingdon Homes. He advised that the Housing Repairs Team was working with the Housing Management Team to support the needs of families in temporary accommodation and that they were focussing particularly on those houses that had been vacant for a significant period. The issue was made more difficult by the large number of houses being returned to the Council which currently averaged at twelve properties per week. However, on the basis of the current void progress, the backlog of properties would be reduced to 20-25 by the end of October 2013.

Councillor Corthorne acknowledged that officers were faced with a very difficult task in reducing the number of void properties and he complemented them for their hard work.

By way of supplementary question, Councillor Bliss asked what the average turnarounds for houses and flats were?

Councillor Corthorne advised that he was not aware of the average turnarounds for different properties but would research the issue and provide an answer for Councillor Bliss in due course.

7.3 QUESTION SUBMITTED BY COUNCILLOR HARMSWORTH TO THE LEADER OF THE COUNCIL – COUNCILLOR PUDDIFOOT

"Has the Leader of the Council had the opportunity to gauge the level of support from leaders of other London Councils for the lobbying of Government to revert back to the original Council Tax Reduction Scheme for 2014/15?"

Prior to answering the question, the Leader stated his intention, God and the electorate willing, of continuing to lead the Council for the foreseeable future.

The Leader of the Council advised that, at a previous meeting of Full Council, the Labour Group had proposed an amendment to the Council Tax Reduction Scheme motion asking the Council to lobby the Government on concerns raised about changes to the benefits system. The Leader had agreed to gauge the support of other Leaders of London Councils on this matter before proceeding. He advised that, since this issue had been raised, he had attended numerous Leaders' Committees and that neither Labour nor Conservative members had raised this as an issue. Based on this, he had determined that there was not sufficient support to proceed with any lobbying on the matter.

There was no supplementary question.

27. MOTIONS (Agenda Item 8)

8.1 MOTION FROM COUNCILLOR RILEY

Councillor Riley moved the following motion:

'Council notes and supports the July Cabinet decision with regard to the latest HS2 consultation and that, as well as the environmental devastation it will cause, the stated rising cost of the proposed HS2 route lacks, as it always has, economic credibility. The Institute of Economic Affairs has stated it “...defies economic logic...”, and the Institute of Directors describe the scheme as a “...grand folly...”.

Council further notes that Lord Mandelson, the former business Secretary, now refers to HS2 as an “...expensive mistake...”, a “...politically driven...” decision intended to “...paint an upbeat view of the future following the financial crash...”. The former Transport Secretary and Chancellor of the Exchequer, Alistair Darling, now declares himself an “...HS2 sceptic...” as “...there’s an awful lot of things in there that are wrong...”. Also, former Chancellor of the exchequer, Lord Lawson, correctly describes the HS2 scheme as “...madness...” and “...simply a prestige project which makes no economic sense at all and is extraordinarily expensive and totally cost ineffective...”.

Council welcomes the fact that leading organisations and former prominent politicians have come to the same conclusions as Hillingdon and many other Local Authorities concerning this project. HS2 has no credible business case and will be an environmental disaster. Accordingly we reaffirm our commitment to continue to put our Residents first by providing on-going financial and practical support to the Hillingdon Against HS2 Group and the 51M Group of Councils.’

The motion was seconded by Councillor Crowe.

Councillor Harmsworth proposed, and Councillor Curling seconded, an amendment to the motion adding the following sentence at the end of the existing motion:

"Council is also of the opinion that such a vast sum of capital money would be better spent on improving the existing transport infrastructure and other necessary infrastructure projects."

The amendment was put to the vote and agreed and, following debate (Councillors Higgins, Gilham, Barnes, D. Mills, Corthorne and Puddifoot), it was:

SUPPLEMENTARY QUESTION FROM COUNCILLOR BLISS – WRITTEN RESPONSE

7.2 SUPPLEMENTARY QUESTION SUBMITTED BY COUNCILLOR BLISS TO THE CABINET MEMBER FOR SOCIAL SERVICES, HEALTH & HOUSING – COUNCILLOR CORTHORNE

By way of supplementary question, Councillor Bliss asked what the average turnarounds for houses and flats were?

Response:

Councillor Corthorne noted that he had liaised with officers and prepared a response to Councillor Bliss' supplementary question in the form of a document setting out the information requested (attached below).

However, Councillor Corthorne advised that this document needed to be taken with a "health warning", since it reflected periods of time during which void properties were awaiting work due to the need to prioritise those with the greatest need. Furthermore, given that some dwellings were returned to the Council in far better order than others – and thus required a much shorter turnaround time – it was difficult to work out a typical void turnaround time by category.

Councillor Corthorne noted that the information provided in the attached document included all void addresses at which works had been completed from December 2012 to August 2013. A number of these voids had remained outstanding for some time as Repairs Service officers had carried out the work by prioritising 3 bedroom and short-life properties.

Councillor Corthorne reported that the average number of days each month was decreasing due to a more structured way of programming the projects and streamlining processes each month. It was noted that the challenge was now to continue to reduce the average turnaround time and to clear the backlog by 31st October 2013. He and officers were sure the Council could achieve this target.
