24. AGREED SYLLABUS REVIEW (Agenda Item 7)

The meeting of the Agreed Syllabus Conference commenced at 7:55 PM.

It was noted that some Members of HSACRE had held a meeting since the last meeting of the main group. The purpose of this meeting had been to discuss possible revisions to the Hillingdon Agreed Syllabus, in order to strengthen the coverage of Humanism and other non-religious world views. The suggestions made by this group had been included in the meeting agenda papers.

The Humanist Member of HSACRE, Robert Harwood, said that questions that he had requested be included in the survey in relation to the review, that had previously been circulated to schools, had not been. He felt that these questions had deliberately been omitted from the final survey. The Advisor stated that the purpose of the questionnaire was to establish whether schools in the Borough supported the undertaking of a full or partial review of the existing agreed syllabus. It had not been practical for the questionnaire to pose detailed questions in relation to the possible content of a revised syllabus.

A High Court judgement made by Justice Warby in November 2015 had ruled in favour of a group of humanist parents, who had challenged the prioritisation of religious views in a religious studies GCSE syllabus. Mr Harwood stated that the result of this judgement was that the syllabus would require updating to ensure that it complied with the law. This update would need to include adequate coverage of Humanism and other non-religious world views.

There was no one present at the meeting who was able to confirm the legal position with regard to what needed to be included in the Agreed Syllabus. Therefore, following discussion, it was agreed that the legal requirements would be confirmed outside the meeting. An update would be provided to Members in advance of the next scheduled meeting of the Agreed Syllabus Conference in June 2016.

Resolved: That:

- 1. That the Clerk to SACRE and the Advisor to SACRE establish the legal requirements with regard to inclusion in the Agreed Syllabus of information in relation to Humanism and other non-religious world views. HSACRE Members would be updated once this had been confirmed.
- 2. The minutes of the meeting held on 4 November 2015 be agreed.

The meeting of the Agreed Syllabus Conference ended at 8:25 PM.

The meeting, which commenced at 7:30 PM, closed at 8:25 PM.
