and principles. It was reported that at the end of September 2022 Hillingdon Council was corporate parent for 339 children under the age of 18 and 575 aged 18 to 25. Examples of achievements were also provided. It was highlighted that as the London Borough of Hillingdon was a port authority 19% of Looked After Children (LAC) under 18 had arrived in the Borough as Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children (UASC). Through the Corporate Parenting Panel and Young People Council, ways were explored on how to improve aspirations and achieving good education. Opportunities such as day work experiences had been arranged to provide insight into different working environments.

The Committee was pleased to see that the London Borough of Hillingdon was the only local authority in London to have succeeded in achieving the full quality mark. Members also welcomed the case studies of achievements of children supported by their corporate parents and were keen to support children and young people with insight and opportunities into different working environments.

In response to questions around whether dispersal and funding arrangements in Hillingdon were still working well, it was explained that the Council had 10 days to move children and young people into permanent accommodation. The scheme had been mandated in December 2021 and the Council was working well with the Home Office. Transferring children in a supportive way to ensure that their needs were met was a priority and Hillingdon covered the cost of the process. It was also explained that there were various types of accommodation including foster carers, residential homes and semi-independent provisions. 52% LAC lived with foster carers some in Hillingdon and outside of the Borough. In terms of visiting some of these accommodation provisions, officers would explore this further and come back to Members in due course. It was noted that various mechanisms and quality checks took place in residential units.

The Committee noted the events that took place to celebrate LAC and young people and their achievements including the Kids in Care Awards which took place annually.

RESOLVED: That the Committee noted the contents of the report and embedded the Corporate Parenting ethos in the workings of the Committee and champion them across the Council.

34. HILLINGDON DRAFT SEND STRATEGY 2022-2025 (Agenda Item 6)

The Executive Director, Education and Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) and Head of SEND introduced the report on the Hillingdon Draft SEND Strategy 2022 – 2025. The report provided the Committee with an update on the recently consulted draft SEND Strategy (the Strategy).

The Committee heard that the Strategy outlined the Council's plan to further develop the SEND offer in Hillingdon over the next four years. The aim of the Strategy was to improve outcomes and help raise the educational achievements, health and care of children and young people in the Borough. The Strategy set out the priorities and shared vision. The consultation period had taken place over the summer term and the report included both the quantitative and qualitative findings from the survey. There was a slight disappointment in the response rate however the Committee was assured that a number of pre-consultation engagement events had also taken place and stakeholders were involved in shaping and co-producing the document prior to formal consultation. There had also been a great deal of post engagement activity.

In response to Member questions regarding how the views and feedback of SEND students was collated, it was recognised through the consultation that the views of young people had not been fully ascertained and further engagement and contact had been made with the Youth Council, Young Peoples' Health Watch and school councils to gain insight. The Committee considered that the views of both education providers and parents ought to have been grouped and assessed separately to identify more accurate results. This feedback was taken on board for future consultations.

It was noted that the Strategy was a dynamic document and work had already been undertaken to meet priorities including the establishment of strong governance arrangements through the SEND Strategic Partnership Board and SEND Operation groups.

The Committee acknowledged the amount of work that had gone into the consultation. Although the feedback was limited, Member considered that it would have been useful to have information on the methods on how priorities would be met. It was explained that the Council had a good relationship with parent carer forums, and they had been involved in shaping the document through the formal consultation and other engagement events. This was an overarching Strategy, and the work was supported through the SEND workstreams and action plans in place. There was another document being worked on including the SEND Sufficiency Strategy that would also be consulted on in due course.

It was reported that the survey had been launched on the Local Offer website and the Corporate website. A number of communications had been sent to alert respondents.

Some concerns were raised regarding the timing of the consultation being over the summer term, that there had only been two headteacher responses and the general feedback received. It was noted that some mainstreams schools already had a huge number of SEND children and questions were raised on how the Strategy would be delivered without overwhelming mainstream schools. It was explained that nationally there was work being undertaken to increase inclusivity and it was recognised that some schools were going well beyond to meet needs of children. The Council was working closely with schools to ensure that they could self-assess their practice around SEND and get the best outcomes. Although there was no possibility to cap the percentage of SEND children at all schools, there could be further work to develop closer and stronger partnership working and communication.

If any further information was available on the number of surveys as part of the consultation, this would be provided to the Committee. Although there was disappointment about the low number of responses, the Committee was assured that there had been a lot of different engagement work undertaken. Lessons about consultation timings would be fed back and taken into account for future consultations.

The Committee was keen to hear about how the Strategy was progressing and requested that an update be placed on the work programme.

RESOLVED:

That the Committee:

- 1. noted the contents of the draft Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Strategy 2022-2025 which outlined the strategic vision and

36.	VERBAL UPDATE ON YOUTH COUNCIL MEETING VISIT (Agenda Item 8) On 26 September 2022, Councillors Bhatt, Sweeting and Gill attended a Youth Council meeting and the Committee was provided with an update of that meeting. Members were impressed with the students, and it was highlighted that they were keen to involve themselves with Council business, meet Members to raise issues and attend and observe meetings. There was a surprisingly lack of representation from the South of the Borough and ways that this could be improved was discussed at the meeting. It was noted that social media was great platform to promote the activities of the Youth Council however there were some challenges in this area. The students were described as an intelligent and refreshing group that were able to share what was working well and going wrong in addition to share the work of different Council activities. RESOLVED: That the Committee noted the verbal update.
