Representation Form from Interested Parties.docx; Web app.pdf;

Good morning,

Thank you for your email. Please find attached representation form for your information and assistance, you may want to complete this to support your representation.

I have attached the application and plan for your information. The application is for an off licence in a convenience store. The applicant has proffered several conditions to promote the licensing objectives at section 18 on the form.

A representation and must relate to one or more of the licensing objectives as detailed in the attached form.

Kind regards,
Mark

Subject: Jay Retail Limited, Unit 1, Boiler House, Blyth Road Hayes, UB3 1BY

Appendix 2

Hello,

I would like to express my concerns regarding the alcohol licensing application for Unit 1 in the Boilerhouse, Hayes, as I live right above the unit.

My concern is that selling alcohol all day, but especially late in the evening, will lead to an increase in noise, litter and anti-social behaviour. I can already imagine people standing outside the shop (i.e. underneath my windows), or sitting on the benches at the front entrance of our building, late in the evening drinking alcohol and getting loud, leaving empty bottles behind as they leave, etc. etc.

I would like to ask you to consider this when deciding on the application.

Thank you,
regards,

Roy Stout
