The sale of alcohol in such close proximity to our home risks bringing an element of noise and disruption to the neighbourhood that will change the pleasant environment. There is every chance that the teachers and their guests will get drunk and disorderly in the time that they have to drink. I assume that there are at least 75 teachers at the school. If they are allowed to invite guests, this number will increase exponentially. It is curious to me as to why this is an important initiative for the school and teachers? I have never worked in an environment that has had a 'bar' on site. This is not normal. If the teachers need to drink at 4pm in the afternoon, they can go to the pub. I am also not convinced that all the children will be off-site by 4pm in the afternoon. Finally, once you open the doors to St. Helens, they push the limits. The sports field is in constant use in the evenings and at weekends. When this was built, it was intended for the school girls but serves as a money machine. The impact on the neighbours is that we have noise pollution in the evenings and every weekend. Men shouting at the top of their voices at 9pm in your living room is very different girls voices during the day. I do not trust that ST Helens is being honest.
