011	Statutory Proposal for a satellite site of Meadow High School and change in number of pupils	Following on from Cabinet's decision in March 2022, as an education authority the Borough must plan for a sufficiency of places and efficient use of resources. There is increasing demand for extra places at Meadow High School as extra places have been added in its main feeder, Hedgewood Primary MLD/ASD community special school. Therefore, the Council is planning a satellite site of Meadow High School at Harefield Academy and subsequent change in number of pupils at both sites. Cabinet will make the necessary statutory decision on this following consideration of the consultation responses.
